ABOUT US:

The Canadian Mental Health Association Hastings Prince Edward (CMHA HPE) provides a wide range of services and programs to support individuals aged 16 and older in achieving their mental health and addiction recovery goals. Committed to promoting mental wellness and resilience, CMHA HPE offers crisis intervention, addiction services, and mental health support, ensuring everyone in the community has access to the resources they need to feel well. By fostering inclusive and supportive environments, CMHA HPE empowers individuals to lead fulfilling and healthy lives. For more information, visit CMHA HPE.

POSITION SUMMARY:

Working as part of a larger multidisciplinary team, the IMPACT Co-Response Worker (ICW), under the general guidance of the IMPACT Program Manager, will provide mobile addiction and mental health (AMH) co-response, intervention, support, and services in a community setting in partnership with local police Services. This position will be embedded in area police service locations as an addiction and mental health resource. The ICW will assist with AMH calls for service when deemed safe and appropriate to do so. The ICW will act as a contact point person for the police services in which they are located and also liaise with the AMH and broader health system as needed (ex. Crisis Intervention services, primary care). This position will work closely with either the IMPACT Transitional Worker(s) (ITW) for unattached individuals, or other AMH staff to facilitate engagement, service navigation, referrals, coping strategies, supportive counselling, harm reduction and relapse prevention planning, crisis and safety planning, follow-up, and communication. When not responding directly to calls for service, the ICW will partner with officers to provide active AMH outreach/prevention in the community to promote service engagement and to provide resources and information.

The incumbent will be required to spend time in-office as well as within police service locations, the community, and local hospital(s). In addition to outreach provision, this position may entail participation on situation tables and delivering community presentations. The ICW will travel between CMHA HPE and police service locations as necessary.
